

9TH WORLD CONGRESS OF METROPOLIS

LAST MINUTE SPECIAL PACKAGE FOR STUDENTS AND ACADEMICS

City leaders from major world cities will be in Sydney from 22 to 25 October. They are coming to METROPOLIS CONGRESS 2008 to discuss the future of cities.

This is a great opportunity for Australian students and academics of architecture, planning and sustainability who are interested in global projects to join and network with some of the world's key drivers of change in the development of cities including:

- PROF. SASKIA SASSEN, Professor at Columbia University and Global City expert
- DR RAJENDRA PACHAURI, Chair of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change
- CARLO RATTI, MIT researcher in technology and cities
- NICKY GAVRON, former Deputy Mayor of London
- DR SHUBHA RAUL, Mayor of Mumbai
- DR KATHY PAIN, Globalisation and World Cities (GaWC) researcher
- JEAN-PAUL HUCHON, President, Ile de France and President, Metropolis
- MAJOR CITIES UNIT established by the Commonwealth Government
- PROF. GEOFF GALLOP, Director, Graduate School of Government, University of Sydney

EXAMINE THE KEY ISSUES FACED BY CITIES

Metropolis Congress 2008 case study workshops and interactive sessions will share expertise on key themes CLIMATE CHANGE, CITY LEADERSHIP, FINANCING INFRASTRUCTURE and URBAN RENEWAL.

We have a limited number of special delegate tickets for day or for the entire Congress available for students and academics:

- Special Daily rate: $99.00 per day (inclusive GST). 1 day, day events only
- Special Congress rate: $330.00 (inclusive GST). 4 days, day events only

Delegates that register for the full Congress will receive one free collection of the "Connecting Cites" research series on NETWORKS, CITY REGIONS, CHINA, INDIA and MEGA EVENT CITIES.

There is also a $99 student and academics rate available for the Sydney Olympic Park Authority conference "Mega Event Cities: Cities that have held an Olympic Games - Past present and future, planning, investment and legacy" to be held on Wednesday 22 October at Sydney Olympic Park.
